Dealing with sexual misconduct?
Wondering if that's even what to call it? SHARE can help.

INFORMATION

Have questions or concerns? Call our 24/7 hotline anytime, drop in between 9am and 5pm weekdays to talk with our professional staff, or begin by exploring our website.

ADVOCACY

Considering taking action? Looking for more information on medical, legal, or on-campus options such as complaint possibilities or no-contact orders? SHARE can help you make your own informed, empowered decisions. We work closely with both on-campus and community resources including Title IX, the University Wide Committee, Yale Health, the Yale and New Haven police and others.

SUPPORT

Want a one-time consultation, in person or over the phone? Looking for ongoing counseling sessions? SHARE connects Yale community members with the support they need in whatever form works best, whether through our office or a referral to another on-campus or local resource. Call or drop in to learn more about how we can help. All contact with SHARE is confidential and can be anonymous if you wish.
